

Rhode Island Department of Transportation Traveler Information Survey Results 3-1-2013

Total Started 55
Total Finished Survey 55

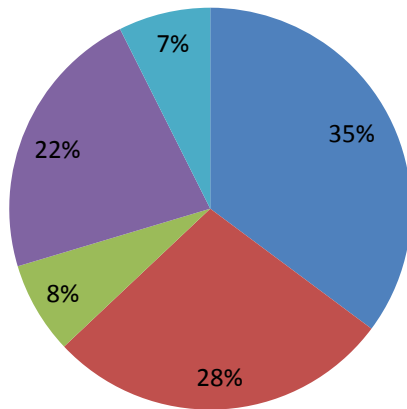

1. At what stage of your trip do you look for traveler information? Check all that apply.

2. What methods do you use to receive traveler information? Check all that apply.

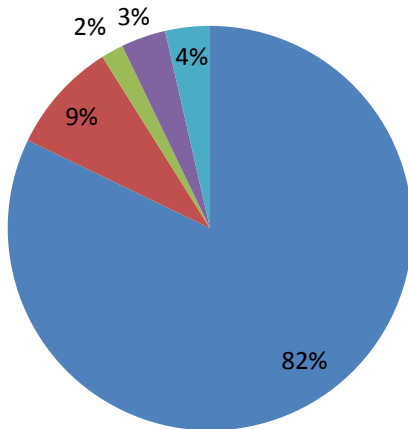

3. How often do you check travel times?

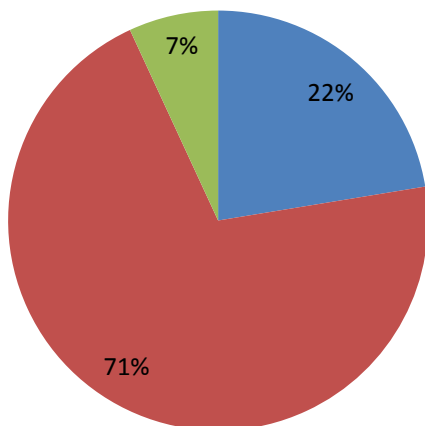

- More than once a day
- Daily
- Weekly
- Only for special occasions/holidays
- Other (please specify)

4. My typical trip on the Rhode Island interstates is for:

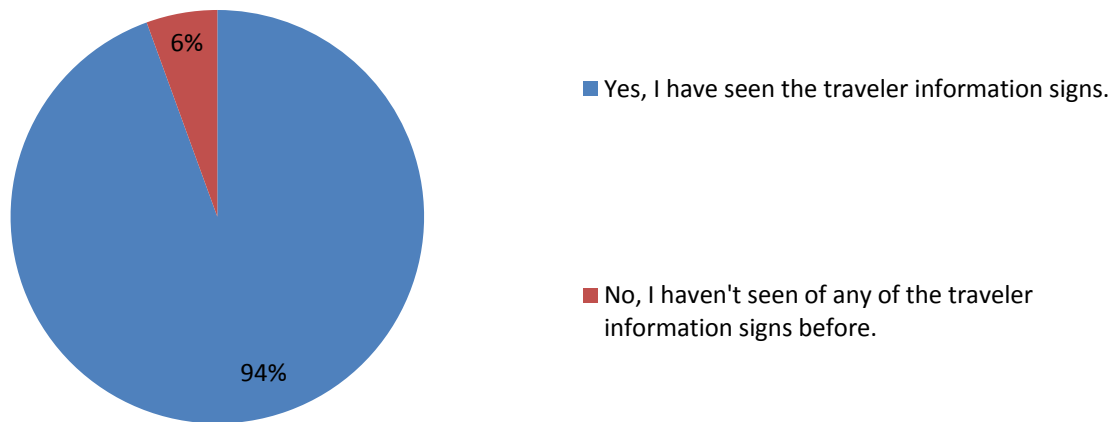

- Commuting/More than once a day
- One or two times/week
- One or two times/month
- One or two times/year
- Other (please specify)

5. What is your typical trip length?

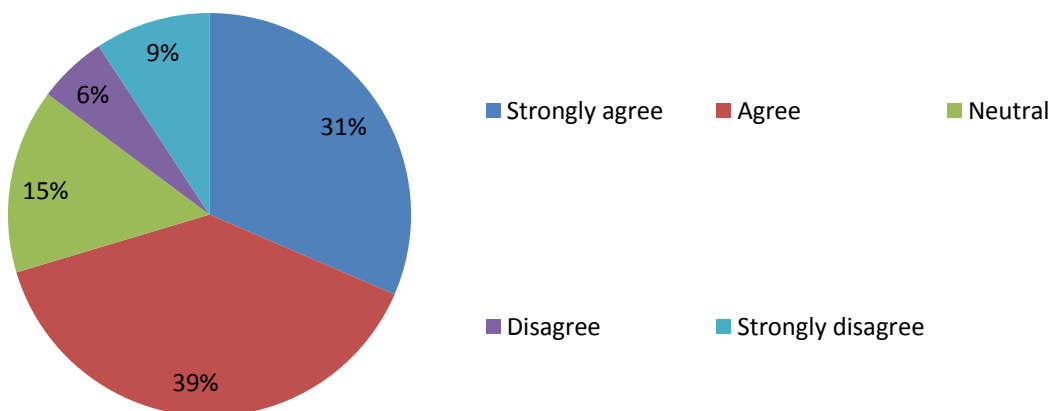

- Short Distance Trip (three or less exits between entry and exit points)
- Long Distance Trip (more than three exits between entry and exit points)
- Other (please specify)

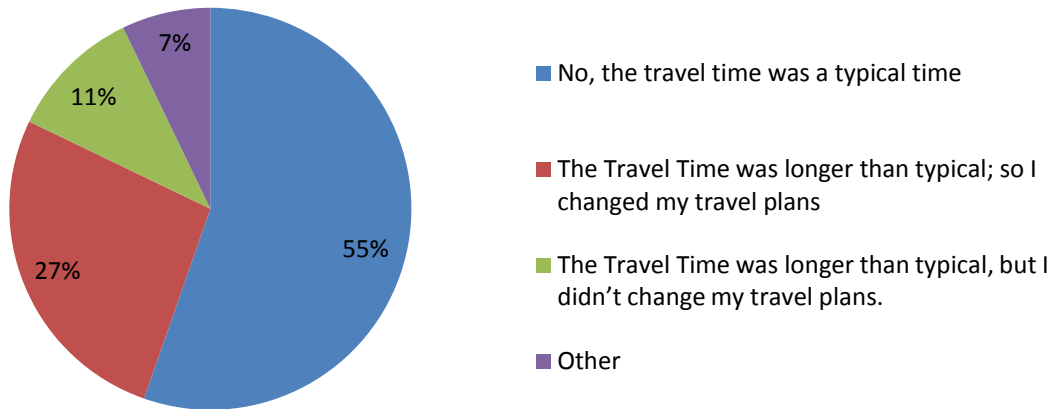

6. There are currently electronic message signs displaying travel time estimates on Interstate 95. Have you seen these message signs?

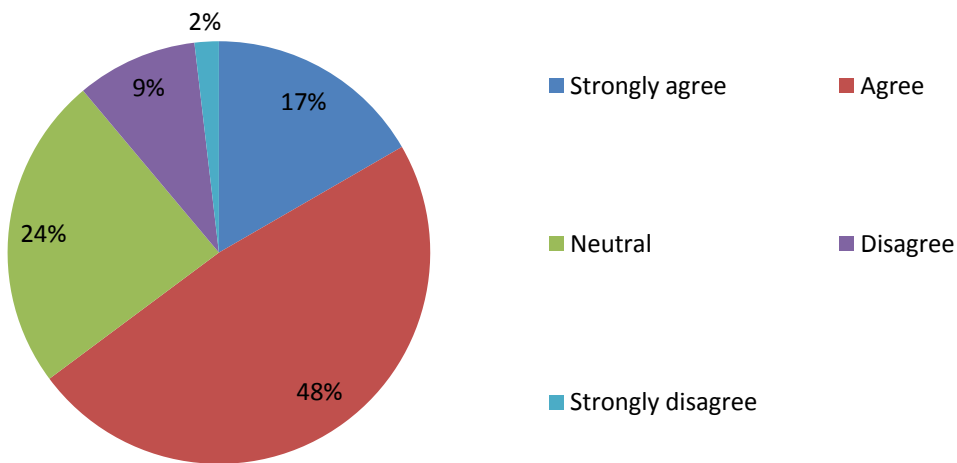

7. In general, the travel times displayed via the information signs provided positive benefits to my trip.

8. Have you changed your route choice or travel plans based on the travel time message displayed on an electronic message sign along the roadway?

9. The travel time estimates displayed on the electronic message signs are accurate.

10. Rhode Island Department of Transportation is considering expanding the coverage of travel time messages provided to the public. Which roadways would you like to have overhead message boards displaying travel times?

